THIS IS NEWSPAPER week (October 8-14).

Throughout the country the newspapers this week will call attention to their role in society.

This special week is also a good time for the newspapers to take a reading as to whether they are doing as good a job as they should, in these trying times.

It is not difficult to find areas in which newspapers seemingly have failed to live up to the idealistic image that many people have in their minds. Newspapers are produced by people.

Today the nation's press is assailed from all quarters. Although the attacks that are being made are quite vehement in nature, such tactics are nothing new. The press has always been a vulnerable target.

As long as there are differences in opinion among people, these criticisms will continue.

Very definitely there have been situations where the newspapers have not acquitted themselves too well.

For example, there are many who will argue that the extensive reports in the newspapers on crime and drug abuse has led, in some instances, to more crime and more drug abuse.

But that, too, is an academic point.

As a newspaperman of minor league standing, we are quite proud on the whole of the newspapers, and newspaper people, of this country.

So during this special week we salute all the newspapers, including even the small fry, like us.

THIS SPECIAL WEEK gives the newspapers the opportunity to focus attention on the fundamental importance of the freedoms guaranteed in the First Amendment.

Incidentally, the liberty exercised by the press belongs to all the people, and not the press alone.

Newspaper Week gives us a chance to stress the essential role in community service that is played by the newspaper.

In this country, newspapers are taken pretty much for granted.

And the true meaning of "freedom of the press" is sort of passed off.

It is when freedom of the press does not exist that the public really loses out.

So that's pretty much what Newspaper Week is all about.

-0-

A SHORT TIME AGO AN epic milestone was passed in the operation of The Press under our direction which began some 16 years ago.

We won't bore you with details but 'way back in 1956 we signed a bunch of papers and assumed a heavy obligation.

And last month the-day-we-thought-would-never-come finally arrived.

Naturally we observed the occasion in a fitting style, for it was a personal landmark and an achievement we sorta wanted to share.

And that was that.

In 16 years there were a lot of months (192 to be exact) and there was a certain fiscal ritual that had to be performed each 30 days.

One might say it became a habit. And habits, as you know, are hard to break.

But that is one habit that we find enjoyable in breaking.

-0-

BACK IN 1956 WHEN WE signed up for our personal 16-year plan that we were telling you about, an old college friend of ours, who was then practicing law in Oakland, drew up the contract. He charged his fee off to nostalgia or something.

Our friend, Sparky Avakian, who is now a judge in

ARCHBISHOP CELEBRATES MASS AT NOON

St. Lucy's 'jubilee' begins Sunday

Parish marks 25 years

A Mass of Thanksgiving at noon on Sunday, Oct. 15, with Archbishop Joseph T. McGucken as the principal celebrant, will usher in the week-long program of events marking the 25th anniversary of the founding of St. Lucy's as a parish.

The Silver Jubilee celebration will end the following Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 21-22, with an "Oktoberfest" that will feature a chicken barbecue on Sunday and games and other activities on Saturday.

A program has been planned for every day with Clayton Barbeau, a noted author and lecturer, speaking on Monday, Oct. 16 at 7:30 p.m. on "The Future of the Family."

Barbeau, a resident of Haight-Ashbury, with his wife Myra, has co-authored three chapters of the first Catholic-Protestant-Jewish book on marriage entitled "Marriage: An Interfaith Guide." He is also the author of "The Head of the Family", "The Ikon", a novel based on his experience in the Korean war which received the James D. Phelan award for fiction and "Future of the Family".

He has written for a number of magazines and is editor of the volume, "The Generation of Love," as well as "Art, Obscenity and Your Children."

Barbeau will also speak on Tuesday, Oct. 17, which has been set aside as Youth Day following the dinner. The elementary school students on Tuesday will participate in a tree-planting ceremony at 4 p.m. and at 6 p.m. the high school and college students will dedicate the barbecue pit which they have built.

In addition to Archbishop McGuckin, nine of the priests who have served St. Lucy's during the past 25 years, will be concelebrants of the Mass of Thanksgiving at noon on Sunday, Oct. 15. An offertory procession has been planned to represent the past, present and future of St. Lucy's. A resolution of commendation from the county Board of Supervisors and the proclamation issued by the mayor of Campbell will be among the presentations to the Archbishop during the offertory procession.

JUBILEE PARTICIPANTS---Jerry Davis, Helen Williams and Cathy Winters, who took part in the poster contest for St. Lucy's Jubilee, get the banner in place designating the week-long event that begins on Sunday, Oct. 15.

Tuesday, Oct. 17, has been set aside as Youth Day. At 4 p.m. the elementary school students will participate in a tree planting ceremony and at 6 p.m. high school and college students will dedicate the barbecue pit which they built.

Following dinner, Clayton Barbeau will be the speaker. Reservations can be made by calling Mr. and Mrs. James Phillips at 378-3804. The young people of the parish in addition to building the barbecue pit, have also painted the Kennelly Hall annex for the Jubilee celebration.

Residents get free trash pickup Friday

Residents within the city limits of Campbell and served by Green Valley Disposal Co., will get a free trash pickup this Friday, Oct. 13.

Those wishing to take advantage of this service, offered twice a year by Green Valley as part of the firm's franchise agreement with the city, are asked to place debris in boxes or containers or in plastic bags tied shut. The boxes should be light enough for one person to carry. Trimmings should be bundled in four-foot lengths.

All debris should be placed on the curb in front of the residence before 7 a.m. this Friday.

Campbell Fire Department officials who coordinate the pickup services with the disposal firm emphasized that the pickup Friday has special significance this year because of the fact that it coincides with Fire Prevention Week (Oct. 8-14).

They point out that this special week which begins Sunday serves to re-emphasize the truth that "fire hurts" and efforts should be made all year to remove fire hazards. The pickup service offered by Green Valley Disposal Co., they point out, allows residents to eliminate many of the fire hazards that exist around the home.

No items such as furniture, appliances, boxes of dirt or rocks will be picked up and old trash or garbage cans that residents want removed should be so marked.

Traffic issue hits Council

At the City Council meeting (on Tuesday after press time) residents from E. Campbell Ave. (east of Bascom), concerned over the heavy traffic on their street, were expected to appear to plead their case for the "city to do something."

Recent traffic accidents on the street, plus increasingly-heavy "through traffic" have upset the residents. Listed on the agenda in that connection also was a letter from Dr. Charles R. Edman, of 1310 E. Campbell Ave., emphasizing the problem.

Because of the city holiday on Monday (Columbus Day) the City Council met Tuesday. Another city holiday on Monday, Oct. 23 (Veterans Day) will cause the Council to shift its meeting to Tuesday, Oct. 24.

Other items on the agenda for this Tuesday included action on the awarding of bids for equipment for the public works department. Bids for a street sweeper, pickup truck,

Building booms for single-family units

Building of single-family dwelling units have shot skyward in Campbell this year aided by the classification of the 100-unit Avco Community Development, Inc., on Latimer just east of San Tomas Expressway as a single-family project.

During September there were 70 building permits issued for single-family dwellings in Campbell for $1,679,790, according to Wally Byron, building official, and since the first of the year there have been 103 such permits for $2,293,920, setting a new record to date for such construction.

In contrast, in all of 1971 there were only nine single-family permits for $174,388. In 1970 there were no such permits issued in Campbell and in 1969 only four for $77,918.

Of the 70 single-family permits taken out in September, 27 were issued to Avco Community Development project which was originally presented by Eichler Homes.

Byron points out that the area is zoned P-D (planned development) and a recreational center is part of the project. The units are on lots under the city standards for single-family units which is permissable under P-D zoning.

However, each unit is separate. There are no "common walls" and that is why they are classified as "single-family" rather than multiples, Byron said. He added that in other cities where similar developments have taken place the same classification has been given.

The 43 other single-family permits issued in September were taken out by Dura Style Homes for the 17-acre portion of the former Amato property between Latimer and Campbell avenues. A similar single-family development is pending for the remaining 14 acres of the property.

During September, three commercial building permits were issued for a total of $128,664. Sutter Hill accounted for $124,740 of this for the shopping center expansion at 840 Hamilton. One of the other commercial permits went to Belko Electric at 1624 Dell Ave. for $3,024 and the other to Fotomat for $900 in the Campbell Plaza Shopping Center.

Planners face light agenda

A light agenda faces the Planning Commission next Monday, Oct. 16, with only one "new" item before the commissioners. The others on the list are "hold-overs" from previous meetings.

The "new" item is a zone change request from R-1 to C-2-S for S. Chinazzo for the corner lot at Winchester and Kennedy (adjacent to St. Lucy's).

Odis Ray, whose request for a use permit to convert a residence into an office at 456 N. Harrison has been approved, is submitting plans for the conversion of the building.

A zone change matter for the M.O. Patrick property at 973 Apricot Ave. (from C-2-S to R-1 or R-M), which was instituted by the Planning Commission as part of the Bascom Ave. policy will also be back on the agenda.

Three items that had been continued in the past for a number of times are also on the agenda. The Commission indicated at the last meeting, however, that the matters would either have to be finalized at the next meeting or dropped.

The items include plans of E. R. Nolen for a residence at 313 Grant Ave. on a substandard lot in the civic center zoning district; plans for a commercial building at 2325 Winchester submitted by Leonard Borello and the application to convert a residence into a bridal center at 880 E. Campbell Ave. submitted by Vinod Kamboj.

Death takes Carl B. Field, long-time resident of city

Funeral services were held in the Campbell Memorial Chapel on Monday for Carl B. Field, 74, a long-time resident of Campbell, who operated Field's Store here for 33 years. He resided at 125 N. Second St.

Field died on Friday in a San Jose hospital where he had been taken on Thursday after being stricken at home.

Field was born in McPherson, Kansas on January 7, 1898.

He and Mrs. Field were married in 1922 in Independence, Kansas and in 1925 they moved west to Palo Alto and shortly thereafter he purchased a grocery store on East Campbell Avenue which was operated as Field's Store until it was sold some 33 years later.

In August of this year, the Fields marked their golden wedding anniversary and more than 250 friends attended the reception marking the occasion held in the Congregational Church of Campbell.

Field was a charter member of the Campbell Kiwanis Club (formed in 1926) and in 1937 served as president of the club.

He was an active member of the Congregational Church of Campbell. Throughout his years in Campbell he was an enthusiastic supporter of sports. In his younger years he was an active participant in all athletics and carried his enthusiasm into his later years.

Newspaper Week

The week of October 8 to 14 is being observed as Newspaper Week in communities throughout the nation.

It is a time to reflect on the role of modern newspapers in today's society and to emphasize again how wise were those men who wrote into the First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution the guarantee of a free press.

Thomas Jefferson once said he would prefer to live in a country without a government rather than a country with a government but no newspapers.

Jefferson also maintained that man must be governed by reason and truth. The first objective should be to leave the way open to all the avenues of truth and the most effective means to do so is by freedom of the press.

We think that philosophy still holds true today.

We think it is also important to remember that to benefit from a good press, the public should zealously defend press freedom even when it hurts.

It has been maintained that freedom of the press is not a press freedom but a public freedom, a public possession and right, and in many ways the public's stoutest weapon.

But to deserve this freedom, the press should strive to be full, fair and factual. But a free people does not leave it to the government to decide what is full, fair and factual.

The greatest strength of a free press, it has been submitted, is not in the points of similarity, but in the points of difference. In the production of news every step involves the conscious intervention of some newsgatherer, and two accounts of the same event will never be the same.

We think it is highly important, for once a year during Newspaper Week, to focus attention on the freedom of the press which goes hand in hand with freedom of expression.

We concede that the newspapers of this country perhaps could do a better job. But the fact remains that freedom of the press does exist and it has a priceless heritage in this country.

All of us should think about that, especially during Newspaper Week.

St. Lucy's jubilee

Depending how one looks at it, 25 years is not a long time.

To young people it may appear to be an eternity while to middle-aged adults it is just a mere step.

Be that as it may, young and old alike, during this next week (Oct. 15–22), have an opportunity to join in marking a 25 year span that has had a tremendous impact on this community.

The week of Oct. 15–22 has been set aside officially as "St. Lucy's Week" when the silver jubilee of the founding of the parish will be celebrated.

St. Lucy's existed in Campbell, of course, long before it became a full-fledged parish. In fact the records of the archdiocese show that a church was established in Campbell in 1914 as a mission of St. Martin's parish in San Jose.

St. Lucy's continued to be a mission until 1947 when it became a separate parish. And it is that historical event that will be celebrated next week during the silver jubilee.

On Sunday, Oct. 15, at noon Archbishop Joseph McGuckin will be the concelebrant at a Thanksgiving Mass. There are events scheduled every day. On Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 21-22, a barbecue-fiesta brings the celebration to a close.

The growth of St. Lucy's during the past 25 years as a parish compares with that of the community of Campbell itself. During the 25 years three church buildings have served the parish, each one larger than the previous structure. And the parish has been "split" in size several times during those years.

The present edifice was constructed in 1967 and accommodates 1200 people, a far cry from the original church on Rincon Ave.

But, as we said, the growth of the parish is actually a reflection of the growth of the community and St. Lucy's today has a tremendous role to play in community life.

We think that it is highly important that one of the days during the week (Wednesday, Oct. 18) has been set aside for an ecumenical religious service at 7:30 p.m. when the religious leaders of the other faiths in the community participate in the event.

This we believe calls attention to the need for cooperation among those of all faiths today in working toward making a better community.

And we think it is also fitting that Thursday, Oct. 19, is designated as "community day". The Chamber of Commerce will co-host the noon luncheon when civic leaders will be honored.

That, of course, in our mind, emphasizes the whole bit more than anything else, for St. Lucy's role in this community is an important one.

Tremendous strides have been made by the parish in the last 25 years.

Let us all hope that the next 25 years will see even greater achievements.

Alameda County, was invited to our thought-the-day-would-never-come-party because of the part he had played.

Unfortunately, the judge was on vacation and couldn't come. But in his note he recalled our activity as editor of our college paper. Incidentally, Sparky was sports editor of the college sheet when we were editor and we both weighed the idea of choosing journalism as a profession against the law.

We both worked in the same hash house near the campus for four years. We often discussed the merits of the two professions while we worked.

We recall for the four years we never left the dishwashing assignment while Sparky was "promoted" to the counter.

It is not that our work assignment or the experience gained in that eating joint had any bearing on the eventual decisions we both made.

But some of you will undoubtedly try to make an analogy of sorts.

We stuck with journalism.

Sparky chose law.

AS ALWAYS THERE WAS spirited bidding at the recent police auction held at the city's corporation yard.

In addition to the usual number of recovered bikes and sundry other items that the police had picked up during the previous six-month period and had been unclaimed by their owners, three used city-owned vehicles that are being replaced were on the block.

Capt. Larry Kelly, of the police department, who was the auctioneer, reported that the sales totalled about $1800 of which $1230 came from the sale of the three vehicles.

The city has found that selling its "trade-ins" at the auction, rather than turning them in on new cars, they gain financially.

Minimum bids were called for in the vehicle sales. We noted with interest, for example, that the 1955 Chevy pick-up's minimum was $150. It sold for $480, whereas the '68 Plymouth sedan sold for its minimum bid of $400 and the '63 Plymouth went for $350, just 50 bucks more than the minimum.

There were no "minimums" for the bikes and other stuff.

The highest bid for a bike was $40.

We thought it was sort of interesting.

Or is it?

NATURALLY POLITICS are (is?) heating up as the Nov. 7 countdown nears.

We concede that's sort of a stupid statement to make. What else is to be expected?

Anyway as a passing note, we must mention that our old buddy, Grace Hebard, at the McGovern rally in San Francisco, as one of the chosen few, managed somehow to shake hands with McGovern.

Of course, we must add that we learned that Don Hebard connived to get Grace and Dorothy Alexander in the proper spot when Senators McGovern and Humphrey arrived on the scene at Fisherman's Wharf.

Anyway Grace happened to be in the right spot to greet Hubert when he came bouncing by her.

After shaking hands with Grace, Senator Humphrey graciously pulled her into the main line and insisted that she meet George (Senator George McGovern, that is, candidate for president).

Don, who was watching from a distance, maintains that it was a pure Humphreyism. It was sort of spontaneous combustion. Or is that the same thing?

On the other hand, a number of Campbell people participated in a Nixon rally in Oakland.

About 60 busloads of GOPers recently were transported to the Nixon rally location... It was all well-organized. Not a slip was made.

And no one reported (Heaven forbid) that anyone was pulled from the crowd to meet Dick (President Richard Nixon) personally, such as was the case with our Gracie and George (Senator George McGovern).

Does this prove something or other?

We doubt it.

THERE HAVE BEEN many wise-cracks offered as to how compact cars fare when they come in contact, collisionwise that is, with their bigger mobile brethern.

But recently we heard of a compact suffering serious injuries from contact with a motorcycle.

And it all happened in a shopping center parking lot.

Bill Means had parked his VW in this lot, see, and was inside a store when he heard all this commotion.

Along with the others he rushed out to see what was going on.

It seems a young guy had lost control of his motorcycle in the parking lot and had smashed into a parked car.

You guessed it.

It was Bill's VW.

The bike rider was not hurt. Bill's little bug had to be towed away for repairs.

And the motorcycle?

It was totalled.

So there, too.

The Council on Tuesday was also scheduled to set a study session for the purpose of discussing how the anticipated windfall of $172,117 in federal revenue-sharing should best be spent.

At Tuesday's meeting also, representatives of the Country Woman's Club were scheduled to present the city with an original painting that had been displayed in their clubhouse for many years.

PruneYard for Fred Sahadi during the month totalled more than $23,000.

Other permits issued during the month brought the total up to $1,865,725. For the first nine months of the year the building permit total has reached $10,645,408, one of the top years in the city's history. In September, 1971 permits issued totalled $1,906,308.

Last year, which set the record for the first nine months there had been $17,942,793 in permits. However, building slacked off the last two months and the total for the entire year was $18,439,839.

Byron said that his department has continued issuing building permits while the question of the impact of a recent court decision relating to environmental impact reports has been discussed throughout the state.

He added that only a few cities have held up the issuance of permits.

NEW CLASS OFFICERS

The new class officers have been chosen for the fall semester. Seniors in office are: Joe DiSalvo, president; Carolyn Apland, vice-president; Alison Roberts, secretary, and Marilyn Bacci, treasurer.

In the junior class there was really a lot of competition, with only one person running for each office!! The newly "elected" juniors are: Jody Newgard, president; Gayle Albanese, vice-president; Janet Susha, secretary, and Abbie Western, treasurer.

This semester Jim Sherriff will preside over the sophomore class with Cindy Blackman as vice-president; Joyce Burns as secretary; and Karen Baker as treasurer.

Last but not least, congratulations to freshman Janet Fisher, the only representative out of all four classes!!! (There are supposed to be five from each class!)

A.S.B. CARDS

Question: How much is the Del Mar student body card worth?

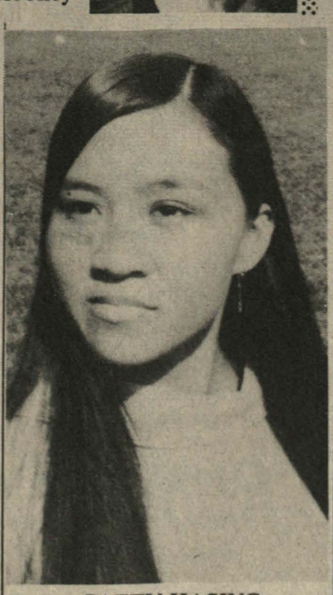
Answer: A lot!

To attend every football game without a student body card would cost about $20.75. Paying for the admission to basketball games, including tournaments, would amount to $35.00. Use of cards to dances and concerts saves approximately $15.00. This is not to mention the yearbook and all other activities. The total value is about $100.00.

The money from the student body card sales provides funds for boy's athletics, drama, girl's sports, dances, spirit commission, art commission, speech and debate, photo club, assemblies, and the school newspaper!!

If you don't already have an A.S.B. card, buy one now and support Del Mar!

FOREIGN EXCHANGE



PATTY HASING
foreign exchange student

Patricia Hasing is a 17 year old girl from Guayaquil, Ecuador. Patty has two brothers and one sister and she is the youngest.

Patty got the chance to come to Del Mar through the "Youth for Understanding" program. She is staying with Shirley Hurt and her family.

Patty really likes California and she is happy to be here. She says everyone has been nice and she has made many new friends.

Del Mar is much different than Patty's own school in Ecuador. In Ecuador most of the schools are not co-educational. Another thing different is that teachers all change classes instead of the students.

Patty's favorite subject at Del Mar is shorthand, and in Ecuador it is public relations. She is planning to study psychology at the university in her city.

Patty enjoys riding her bicycle in her neighborhood, going to parties, movies, and visiting her friends.

"NOT SO NEW" D. of A.

Del Mar has a new director of activities this year, Lloyd Gillespie. Gillespie came from Leigh to Del Mar but he is not so new around our campus. Gillespie was Del Mar's first student body president and he was in the first graduating class! Welcome back, Mr. Gillespie!!

INTRAMURALS

Del Mar will be having a lot of intramurals this year after school.

To start off there will be bowling intramurals which will last throughout the year, if enough people come.

Starting Mondays, October 2, 9, 16 and 30, there will be coed tennis.

On Wednesdays, October 4, 11, 18 and 25, there will be flag football for girls and tennis for the guys.

DEL MAR SPORTS

On Thursday, September 28, the little Dons lost their first game of the season to the Westmont Warriors. The game was very close, but the frosh-soph ended up on the bottom with a score of 12-8.

Our super great varsity team really whipped the Warriors on Friday. The score was 20-8 and the big Dons were ahead for most of the game. The whole team did really great!!

If you want to see the big Dons win their next game, come to the Del Mar bowl on Friday, October 13 at 3:30 p.m. They will be playing the Los Gatos Wildcats.

Cougars Corner

by Mike Lindsey

ACTIVITY PERIOD

This is the year of changes and new programs at Camden. One of the best programs to be started this year is the Activity Period.

This is a 50 minute time slot, scheduled once a week, where clubs, special classes, and controlled rap sessions are held. Activities include everything from sailing club to beginning knitting! The program is designed to get students involved by taking school time to have the meetings.

SNACK SHACK

At the next Cougar football game you attend, you'll see a white with purple and gold stripes shack on the Cougar side of the field. It is the new Camden Snack Shack. Any Camden club can sign for the shack and then the student government picks the group that will run the shack for that week.

The club buys the refreshments they will sell and then invest the profits in their respective clubs. The shack is portable and can be used for other sports.

COUGAR SPIRIT

The mighty Cougar spirit seems bigger and better than ever. Leading this spirit will be our new cheerleaders, letter girls and song girls.

They are, varsity cheerleaders; Nancy Yorkey (head), Kathy Adams, Sharon Root, Carol Sliter and Rita Stromquist. Frosh-soph; Jeannette Kaneko (head), Nancy Durbin and Cindy Guillett.

Song girls; Lori Fuller, Susie Garay, Becky Martinez, Sherie Odem, Lorraine Pimental, Connie Wheeler, and Eleanor Clupney, alternate.

Letter girls are; Carol Ayers, Debbie Bringuel, Patti Cunningham, Beth MacDanold, Krist Nadvornik, Janis Parker, Diana Puz, Monica Sheridan, Val Underwood and Brenda Pethman.

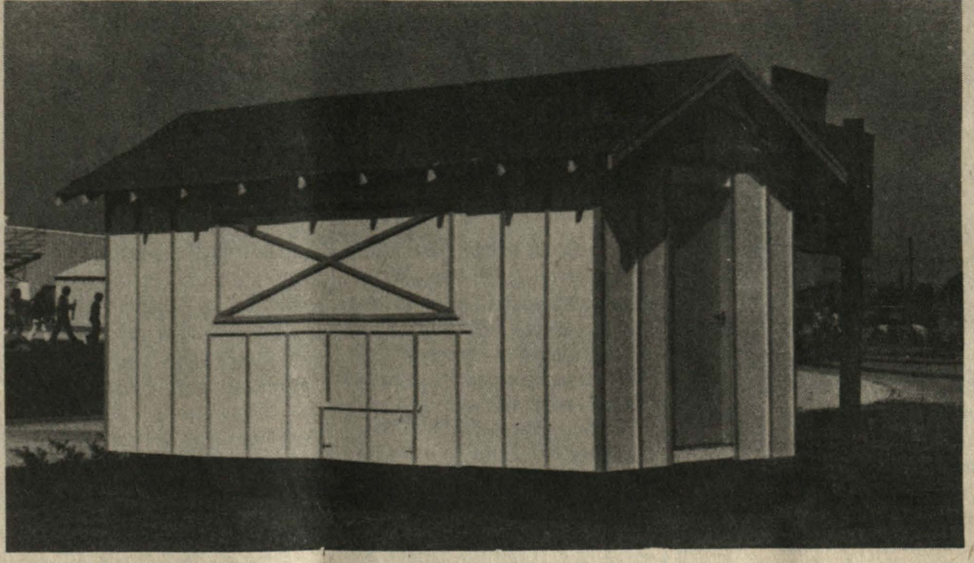
MOCK ELECTION

The junior and senior class will be putting on a mock election. The purpose will be to give students a better understanding on how the government works. The candidates are President Nixon and Senator McGovern. Different propositions also will be voted on. The students will be taken through every phase of the election.

COUGAR FOOTBALL

Camden was unable to control the Leigh Longhorns as the Cougar Varsity Football team went down in defeat 14-7. In a game of errors the Cougars managed but one touchdown as QB Bob Martin slipped into the end-zone for the second quarter score.

The baby Cougars demolished the Leigh soph-frosh team 29-0. The victory leaves the Cubs 2-0 in league play.



SNACK SHACK

YOUTH CHORAL GROUP

A Youth Choral Group designed to give young people (12 years through high school) an opportunity to enjoy singing and performing in the area is being organized by Jeannette Morgan, vocal teacher of Swarthmore Drive, Saratoga.

Choir members will be given help with proper breathing, tone-production and note reading. It will be a combination of voice - lessons plus the group experience of working with other young people.

Stamp book goes on sale

Campbell post office now has available for postal customers a pocket size book depicting American heritage on stamps, according to Bill Jennings, postmaster.

Jennings said he was pleased that the office had been chosen to place these interesting books on sale. He said each page displays U.S. stamps in full color with an accurate, concise description and their current value.

The stamps and stories of the book carry the reader on an eventful journey from Columbus' discovery of America to the Apollo 15 landing on the moon.

These pocket books, 5½ x 7 inches, will be available for $2 each.

These books, Postmaster Jennings said, are being made available because of the interest expressed in the 1971 Mini-Albums the office placed on sale in December.

A limited number of the Mini-Albums containing 1971 commemorative stamps also are available.

The postmaster urged stamp collectors and those interested in becoming collectors to obtain the book as soon as possible as the supply is limited.

OIL CONSUMPTION

Plain leakage, according to the National Automobile Club, is often behind car consumption of too much oil.

CONTESTANTS IN PRUNEYARD BEAUTY PAGEANT--Nine of the girls who competed for the title of "Miss PruneYard" in the beauty pageant as part of the First Anniversary Festival pose in front of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce office.

PRUNEYARD ROYAL COURT---Karen Hunter, 17, (center) of San Jose, a student at Branham High, was chosen as "Miss PruneYard" in the beauty pageant at the first anniversary festival on Sunday night. First runner-up princess was Suanne Lovoi, 19, of San Jose, a student at San Jose State University and Sylvia Miller, 19, also of San Jose, a student of West Valley College, second runner-up princess is on the left.

Campbell High uses new report cards this year

There will be a new look in report cards at Campbell High School this year.

Instead of the usual quarterly report cards there will be a combination of report cards and progress reports for all students. The customary report cards will be mailed home only twice a year, at semester endings in February and June.

Quarterly progress reports will be given to each student by his teacher in each of his courses at these times: October 20, December 1, March 9, and April 27.

Teachers will comment on a student's work in various areas such as: attendance, homework, tests, participation in class activities, use of class time, completion of assignments. A "grade to date" will be indicated in each course but this grade may change by the official recording date at semester's end.

"We feel the progress reports will indicate more clearly how a student is progressing than the quarterly report cards did," said Don Armitstead, Campbell High School director of education.

A progress report used to be mailed home only to students who were getting a failing grade in their work, Armitstead explained. Because it took time to make out the reports and mail them, students had little time to improve before teh quarterly grade was issued.

This new system shows every student, the top student as well as the one whose work needs improving, where he stands, and what are his areas of strength and weakness. Furthermore, he has plenty of opportunity to improve, if he needs to, before the semester grading time.

The new Campbell High grading system is a pilot program for the district in a continuing study of grading procedures that will best show a student's achievements in school classes.

Parents are invited to meet with their student's teachers and counselors if progress reports indicate he is not doing as well in school as he is able.

AT PRUNEYARD FESTIVAL---Although high winds kept the hot air balloon rides (above) at the PruneYard's first annual anniversary festival from operating consistently, other activities during the four-day series of events attracted between 75,000 and 80,000 people, according to a traffic count made by PruneYard officials.

In conjunction with the fun-filled four days, the Miss PruneYard beauty pageant was held. Karen Hunter was chosen Miss PruneYard and Sueanne Lovoi and Sylvia Miller were selected as princesses.

During the four days, there was continuous entertainment from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. daily featuring musical groups, circus clowns and other performers.

There are now 56 stores located in the PruneYard (at the grand opening last year there were 34) and within 90 days three new stores, a woman's fashion store and two restaurants are scheduled to open their doors.

Under construction since the grand opening is the new 10-story office building, Towers II. The long-awaited "raw bar" and cocktail lounge is scheduled to open on the 18th floor of Towers I in December.

Another of the featured attractions during the PruneYard festival was the "Pro Art" festival that exhibited the works of 72 different artists.

Helen Womack's hard work pays off

A Campbell woman who was told some years ago that her handicap would remove her from the job market fooled 'em recently.

Mrs. Elbert (Helen) Womack, 300 N. Sunberry, has a crippling back ailment and was forced to seek help from the State rehabilitation department about six years ago. One of her talents was discovered to be art, so the State sent her to school.

Recently, Mrs. Womack and her former teacher, Myrtle Hawkins of Santa Clara, were both participants in the Fifth Annual Art Exhibit of Work by Physically Handicapped Artists in San Francisco.

On hand to greet them also was Mayor Joseph Alioto and Jack Fiorito, representative from Pacific Telephone who this year was chairman of the exhibit.

Sharon Gardner of Santa Clara, victim of a tragic accident several years ago, and a pupil of Mrs. Womack's, also exhibited at the show.

Mrs. Womack was awarded second place in the show. Mrs. Hawkins, a victim of polio, was presented with a third.

Over 20 handicapped artists from this area competed in the show which was held in the lobby of the Crown Zellerbach Building in San Francisco.

Mrs. Womack teaches in her home and currently has displays at Bank of California in Town and Country Shopping Center and Santa Clara Savings and Loan Association.

MAYOR ON HAND---Mrs. Helen Womack listens while Mayor Joseph Alioto of San Francisco reads off the name and title of her prize-winning oil in show of art works by handicapped people.

TRIUMPHANT TRIO---Three ladies well on their way to overcoming physical handicaps exhibited their art work in San Francisco recently. Left to right are Mrs. Myrtle Hawkins, Mrs. Helen Womack of Campbell and Sharon Gardner.

OPENING FRIDAY---C. Michael Traw and Norma Hughes will play the leading roles in Phoenix Productions' presentation of "Where's Charley?," opening Friday in the Los Gatos Prentiss Brown Auditorium at 8:30 p.m. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

Charming musical "Charley" is Phoenix's fall offering

Where's Charley?" will open Friday, Oct. 13, in Los Gatos as the opening attraction for Phoenix Productions second season.

The Frank Loesser musical will be staged in the Prentiss Brown Auditorium Oct. 13, 14, 21, 27, and 28, at 8:30 p.m.

Heading the cast directed by Joseph Paul Glasner are Norma Hughes, Don Thibault, Ruth Richard, Fred Hassett, Brian Mann, and C. Michael Traw in the title role. Special guest appearances will be made by Dick and Joanne Vine, veterans of the Broadway stage.

The musical is based on the classic English farce, "Charley's Aunt," and includes such songs as "My Darling, My Darling", "The New Ashmoleon Marching Society", and "Once in Love with Amy." The production was first presented in 1948 and starred Ray Bolger.

The production staff includes Marian C. Chapman, producer; Meredithe Boyd, choreographer; Alan Haydis, music director; James E. Tobler, chorus director; Gloria Stockton, costume designer; Steve Lorente, light designer; and Ed Howie, technical director.

The remainder of the season will include two musicals, one of which will be "Peter Pan."

For ticket information, call 378-6322 or 247-1645.

A very special birthday

MRS. ELIZABETH B. SPEAR

Elizabeth B. Spear was recently feted with a surprise birthday party.

Approximately 25 members of Mrs. Spear's family were on hand to help celebrate her 80th year.

Gifts and best wishes were received from her sister, Mrs. Emil Krone, and family in Springfield, Illinois.

Children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren from as far north as Eureka, California, attended.

During the course of the afternoon, Mrs. Spear was presented with original poems from the youngest grandchildren and each of the great-grandchildren present.

Mrs. Spear has lived in the San Jose area since 1955. She is in good health and enjoys playing ball and other games with her great-grandchildren who number 25 and range in age from 11 months to 17 years and says she finds no generation gap with her 14 grandchildren.

Active in church work, she does her own shopping each week and can be seen on most any morning out walking bright and early and visiting with her many friends.

When asked what she attributed her mother's longevity to, Mrs. Robert Bisconer of 1572 Fuchsia Drive, San Jose, answered, "I believe its her strong faith and the fact that she has always enjoyed life and people."

DIG 'N' DREAM

The Dig 'n' Dream Garden Club will meet on Wednesday, October 18, at 10 a.m., at the home of Mrs. Frances Plat, 1508 Camino Monde Drive, San Jose.

Members will hold a therapy workshop for Agnew's Hospital, after which Mrs. Harry Rhea, president, will preside over a business meeting. A luncheon will follow.

ADVERTISING SOMETHING FREE--Bruce Moritz, business education department head for Metropolitan Adult Education Program, and Nellie Shore of the Human Resources Department, hold a sign promoting the free Christmas sales training which MAEP offers each year.

The training program, which has been conducted for the past 25 years, will hold two day sessions Monday and Tuesday, October 16 and 17 at Eastridge and Wednesday and Thursday at Northern California Savings & Loan Community Hall, 1725 Saratoga Ave., at Prospect.

Speakers and films will show prospective salespersons how to use sales psychology, attitude, techniques, instruction on handling cash, and how to obtain employment.

Certificates of completion are awarded to those who complete the two-day course. The Human Resources Department will aid in obtaining employment for graduates. Employers who will need Christmas help are encouraged to call HRD at 277-1492.

"The organization of our press has truly been a success. Our law concerning the press is such that divergencies of opinion between members of the government are no longer an occasion for public exhibitions, which are not the newspapers' business. We've eliminated that conception that everybody has the right to say whatever comes into his head."

—Adolf Hitler

YES!

"Why should freedom of speech and freedom of the press be allowed? Why should a government which is doing what is believes to be right allow itself to be criticized? It would not allow opposition by lethal weapons. Ideas are much more fatal things than guns. Why should any man be allowed to buy a printing press and disseminate pernicious opinion calculated to embarrass the government?"

—Nikolai Lenin

NO!

"Robust criticism of government by the press and the consequent skepticism of the press on the part of the government are the necessary ingredients . . . for a truly free society."

FOOTBALL

With about 20 more seconds, the West Valley College Viking football team might have nailed their second win of the 1972 season last Friday night at Buck Shaw Stadium against the state's top ranked College of the Redwoods. But instead, the Vikes had to accept a 32-27 setback.

Redwood scored with just 1:04 left to play in the ball game to jump out to their ultimate margin of victory. But that didn't dampen Viking spirits. Joe Alvarez (Campbell) engineered a 74 yard drive in the final minute that fell just six yards short of the game winning touchdown.

The Vikings, after three straight losses, will be looking for that elusive winning trail Saturday night when they host the Contra Costa Comets in their Camino Norte Conference opener on Los Gatos High's Helm field.

The Comets, a pre-season pick to win the CNC title, bring in a dismal 1-3 record, identical to that of West Valley. But they have a fine scoring machine and five sub-10 second sprinters in their offensive attack.

Quarterback Kevin Hall, 6'1" and 185 pounds, spearheads their offense that scores a lot on the "big play." Linebacker Andre Hogannon and back Dennis Little lead the defense.

The Vikings took a hint from Contra Costa and used the "big play" effectively last Friday, scoring all four of their touchdowns on big gainers against Redwoods.

Mike Franz (Leigh) was the top WVC ball carrier, romping for 102 yards on 17 carries, two totes good for 80 of those yards. Don DeLay (Saratoga) carried three times for 95 yards, one an 88 yard touchdown scamper.

Alvarez tossed the football 30 times in the game, completing 13 for 224 yards. He threw two interceptions, one that cost them the game in the final minutes.

The Vikings took over after a COR punt late in the game on their own 20 with the score 27-25.

Franz carried for a couple of yards and Gerald Galloway (Branham) picked up three more. But a Redwoods tackler used Galloway's facemask as a handle, giving the Vikes 15 more yards and a first down.

Two plays later Alvarez hooked up with Sam LoBue (Campbell) for 12 yards and a second first down. It seemed that the Vikes were rolling until an Alvarez pass was picked off and returned to the WVC 35.

WATER GAMES

"We learned some things that we think will help us the rest of the season," said West Valley College water-polo coach Gene Nyquist after his Vikings suffered through last week with only two wins in seven games.

But the Vikings aren't done trying the "biggies" yet. Friday WVC will play host to the Santa Clara University varsity. The game is slated for 3:30 p.m. in their Saratoga pool.

A day later the orange and blue mermen will hit the road to test a tough Monterey Peninsula College squad in their home pool at 11 a.m.

Both Diablo Valley and El Camino fell victim to the Vikings last week but the University of Wyoming, Brigham Young, Texas A & M, Air Force and the San Jose State junior varsity all found the formula to beat WVC.

SOCCER

Sporting a 6-2-1 record for 1972, the West Valley College soccermen will go out of their league for their next two opponents. The Vikes travel to San Francisco City College Tuesday before hosting Diablo Valley a week later at 3 p.m. in Saratoga.

Even though the two battles will not be conference games, they will count toward making the Northern California play-offs. All second round Camino Norte Conference games plus three out of conference games will determine the NorCal berths. The top four teams at the end of that competition will compete for the title.

But in CNC play, the Vikings upped their record to 3-2-1 last week, whipping Alameda 10-0. Guy Hoosay (Leigh) scored three times, Casey High (Saratoga) and Richard Rutgers, two each, and Dan Oblak (Prospect), Jim Adams (Saratoga) and Jim Fox (Buchser) one apiece in the win.

RUNNERS

Mike Schaecher (Branham) led the West Valley College cross country squad to a third place last weekend at the Golden Gate Invitational in San Francisco with his eighth place finish.

Schaecher nabbed a medal for running 20:55 on the Golden Gate course for eighth among the 194 runners competing. The Vikings ended third as a team, just 19 seconds behind second place Fresno.

Arturo Tello (Santa Clara) ended just out of the money in 12th at 21:04. Mike Haniger (Mitty) was 19th at 21:17, Wayne Hopp (Los Gatos) 30th at 21:35, Jon Ahnberg (Westmont) 31st at 21:36, Burt Hume (Campbell) 37th at 21:48, Dale Finochio (Mitty) 38th at 21:49 and Ron Grander (Saratoga) 48th at 21:59.

Other top runners for West Valley were Mike Morris (Camden) 60th at 22:16, Bill Oliver (Del Mar) 69th at 22:26 and Ralph Shaffer (Branham) 71st at 22:27.

DARTING AROUND

with Tom Carroll

There is much sports activity this weekend. Besides the usual football games, auto racing will be the major item with the final points race at the San Jose Speedway and the Can-Am sports car races at Laguna Seca. The Northern California Darts Assn. will have their awards dinner dance on Saturday night in the Southland Mall in Hayward.

The Cow Palace also has an interesting weekend. Some people might classify Friday night's event as sport. Others might call it a circus. Either way its an old-fashioned political rally for George McGovern, followed on Saturday night by another great acting event staged by Roy Shire, wrestling.

Sunday will see the AAU Karate Championships take over the arena with eliminations during the day and the finals in the evening.

POLLUTION PACKER

My old friend, automotive writer Deke Houlgate, passed on some interesting information from the Bonneville Salt Flats in Utah. On the weekend of Sept. 30–Oct. 1, Dave Anderson of Minneapolis set 12 world and national records in Tony Fox's Pollution Packer rocket dragster.

Then Paula Murphy of Granada Hills set a national record for women in the standing start quarter-mile. A total of 13 records for the vehicle.

Anderson's speeds were: Quarter-mile, 158.842 mph; Half-Kilometer, 173.918 mph; Kilometer, 234.775 mph. Miss Murphy with a lower power setting than Anderson, was credited with a speed average of 134.168 mph.

All speeds were two-way averages clocked and certified by the United States Auto Club under the direction of Joe Petrali, chief steward.

These figures don't seem very high when you compare them to drag strip figures but the difference is that drag figures indicate top speed while record figures are the average for the run. Anderson was doing about 280 at the end of the quarter-mile, about 310 at the end of 500 meters and 375 coming out of the Kilo. Miss Murphy was doing 250 at the end of the quarter.

The 750 lb. vehicle was propelled by an unusual rocket motor which consumed 16 gallons of fuel fed through it under intense pressure.

The propellant used on early runs was a 90 per cent solution of hydrogen peroxide, decomposed and expanded 500 times its normal volume when forced through a silver catalytic screen. The end product spewing out the tail of the car was a combination of superheated steam and pure oxygen, absent of any pollutants.

LAGUNA SECA

It's the big racing weekend in Monterey, The Monterey-Castrol Grand Prix. Saturday afternoon is an all formula program with the SCCA Formula Super Vee Championship at 1:15. Two regional races will be run at the end of the afternoon, one event for Formula Vee and the other for Formula A,B,C,SV, and FF.

Sunday morning will be the regional races for production sports cars and smaller sports racing cars. The 2.5 liter Trans Am race will start at 12:15 with the 90 lap Grand Prix starting at 2:30.

After several years of domination by Team McLaren, the Porsches are coming on strong this year.

California Canadian Bank opens branch

GRAND OPENING — California Canadian Bank in San Tomas Plaza at Campbell Ave. and San Tomas Aquino Road, will hold its grand opening this week-end starting Thursday, Oct. 12. It will be the bank's 20th branch to be opened since the bank was founded in 1864 in San Francisco.

California Canadian Bank's newest office is ready to open at 94 San Tomas Aquino Road in Campbell. The new office becomes the 20th branch in the growing organization.

Already in operation with full service banking facilities, the branch will be having their opening celebration Thursday through Saturday. Oct. 12, 13, and 14. The celebration will honor Abraham Lincoln, who was president at the time of the Bank's founding in San Francisco in 1864.

During the Grand Opening, the bank will be giving $5 in cash to those who open a checking account of $100 or more or a savings account of $250 or more.

As a special feature of the celebration "Mr. Lincoln" will be at the branch from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. during the three day affair to greet visitors.

Handsome parchment replicas of the Gettysburg Address in Lincoln's own handwriting will be given away free to adults, and balloons will be given away to the children. There will also be free refreshments available.

Manager of the new Campbell Branch is Bryan D. Dunnivan, an Assistant Vice-President of California Canadian Bank in addition to being the Bank's newest manager. Dunnivan joined California Canadian Bank in 1964 and has been a manager for the bank's Palo Alto branch and bank officer in the San Francisco main branch.

Like the 19 other branches from San Francisco to San Diego, California Canadian Bank's new Campbell branch offers full service banking facilities, including free checking accounts with a $100 minimum balance and new master checking that combines master charge with personal checking so that good checks can be written even when the account balance is zero.

In addition to full service banking, the Campbell branch also stresses customer convenience. Facilities include a walk-up window open an hour earlier and closing an hour later than regular banking hours from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Also available is a drive-up window, open from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Thursday, and 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Friday.

Manager Bryan Dunnivan adds that the branch will be introducing new "Pneu-Vista" drive-in lanes in the near future. These are self-service kiosks which connect to the branch building by pneumatic tubes. Plans call for three of these lanes to be installed with the goal of making banking by auto as easy and fast as possible.

Regular banking hours are 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., Monday through Thursday, and 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Friday. For the grand opening celebration, the branch will be open Saturday, Oct. 14 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Cannady heads C–M league

Chuck Cannady, president of the Campbell-Moreland Pony League in 1968 and 1969, will once again serve in that capacity.

Others elected were: John Nolte, vice-president; Roy Leishman, treasurer; Joe McGrody, secretary, and Bob Devor, player agent.

The new board of directors will include Paul Judd, Ed Pranschke, Phil Rogers, Rudy Delgado and Dick Schneider.

As president, Cannady succeeds Rich Barry, who was recently appointed Pony League area director.

Also stepping down after years of outstanding service to the league was John Adams (treasurer).

Cannady's first official move was to announce that the next league meeting will be held next Wednesday (Oct. 18) at the Rincon Park clubhouse.

Proceeds will benefit scholarships and youth service projects conducted by the group.

The same location will be used by the club when they have a "haunted house" for youngsters at the end of the month.

Westmont Open Mouth

PAUL & MS. MAUREEN
(Macierz) (Hillyard)

Ms.: Up against the wall, male chauvinist pig!
Paul: What?
Ms.: You heard me! I'm tired of doing second class labor!
Paul: But, Maureen, I don't know how to type.
Ms.: That's "Ms." to you, piglet.
Paul: What do you want? This whole column's already donated to women.
Ms.: Right on!

GIRLS SPORTS

Tennis and swimming open the '72-'73 season for the Westmont Girls Sports.

Randi Ellman, new swimming coach, and Daisy Ishibashi, tennis coach, are preparing the gals for a victorious first season.

Paul: What's next? Girls wrestling?
Ms.: Watch it, oppressor.
Paul: At least you've got spirit!

BOOGIE

Boogie is this year's motto for the '72-'73 spirit commission under the supervision of Marnie Marr.

Varsity cheerleaders are Vickie Athearn, Nancy Gerth, Kari Napier, Monica Saska, and head cheerleader Margret Skarmas.

New frosh-soph cheerleaders are Ellen Lyman, Maureen Tomino, and head Winnie Romero.

This year's songgirls are led by Mary Miano. They are Lori Barbano, Patti Borello, Robin Johnson, Renee Thomas and Mary Jayne Ybarra.

Lettergirls for the year are Silvia Chou, Raylene Cupps, Mary Jo Kane, Gayle Kitchen, Linda Lund, Nancy McGill, Katie Riggle, Sherrie Tounger, headed up by Margret Van Klavern.

This year something new to Westmont, two mascots. They are Kellee Kanill and Paul Macierz.

Ms.: How did you get in there?
Paul: Genius has no sex.
Ms.: Sisters everywhere unite against the male sexists!
Paul: Women are sisters nowhere.
Ms.: What about the girl Foreign Exchange students?

WELCOME
YVONNE AND LIANA

Westmont has four foreign exchange students this year, two of them are girls.

Yvonne Hall is from the Dominican Republic and is staying with Darcy Bisset and her family.

Liana Seco comes from Costa Rica and is living with Patty Blair.

These students are sponsored by Youth for Understanding and the Westmont Foreign Exchange club advised by Vic Small. This club will be selling UNICEF Christmas Cards later this fall to help the students with school expenses.

Ms.: There you go anti-women! What say you?
Paul: Well, some of my best friends are women.
Ms.: You know, women are 35% of the work force. Look at how hard the Satin Dolls work to please you male supremists.

SATIN DOLLS

Westmont drill team has a lot going for it with these beauties working for the band.

Headed by Linda Lucas they are Marcia Roberson, Pam Falke, Carolyn Pinkermen, Linda Laroux, Cheri Kinley, Carmen Gallegos, Patsy Falke, Lori Gordillo, Patty Boyd, Linda Fowles, and baby doll Kathy Macierz.

Their supervisor is Pat Brach.

Paul: Wait a minute--these girls are sex objects. What do you say to that, Miss Liberation?
Ms.: Hey, these girls are not stupid.
Paul: It would be naive to suggest that a B.A. can be made as attractive to a girl as a marriage license.
Ms.: Cool it, manipulator. Power to women!
Paul: Power to men!

EVERYBODY'S LIB

There is a new and different club on campus at Westmont. Its name is Everybody's Lib.

This consciousness raising group, led by Dawn Chase, plans to have guest speakers along with weekly discussions involving not only students, but faculty also.

Anyone interested in speaking to the group, contact Dawn Chase at Westmont High 378-1550.

Ms.: You know, for an oppressor you aren't so bad.
Paul: Everybody needs somebody. Even males.

EGO CORNER

This week's Ego Corner is granted to the people--men and women--who have a sense of humor and a sense of understanding to be able to see the lighter side of any issue in life.

So to all our boogie-buddies...by happy and stay free.

Ms.: Hey chauvinist. I'm reading the Sisterhood of Women, and it says that "in ten out of fourteen clerical and office jobs, men got higher pay than women, for identical work."
Paul: Maureen! I've got a great idea. Next week I'll do the typing!

STUDYING --- Masoe Naito and Pari Bakari are studying hard to learn to converse with each other in English--rather than the tongues of their native lands, Japan and Iran.

Annual UN Day party is planned by ESL class

BEAUTIFUL GARB --- Three members of the ESL class at Bennett Hall discuss the coming UN Day celebration, October 24, to which the community is invited.

An almost traditional celebration will be held in Campbell on Tuesday, October 24.

At the Congregational Church of Campbell, in Bennett Hall, a class meets each day. The class is called English as a Second Language.

Basically, it's a class for the foreign born who need help with their English. Beneath that, the class is much more.

Alice Cox, director of the class, has turned the group into a miniature of the United Nations, encouraging them to share their many cultures with each other, and with the community.

Out of this has grown the class's "UN Day" celebration--this year marks number five--where the students bring native costumes, gourmet foods and artifacts.

On this day the group shares with their classmates and a large audience of the community, the many "special" things they remember about their former homes.

The 40 students don't limit their studies to language. Many of them are seeking the equivalent of an eighth grade education and the teachers at Bennett Hall are attempting to satisfy their desires.

Some of the newcomers are uncertain of their new modes of living and others wish to become available to the labor force. Counselors are on hand to help them.

The morning program will commence at 10:30 a.m. and last until 1 p.m. Many of the enrollees also have children who attend the church nursery school and some of these will be on hand, as will proud husbands and other family members.

Mrs. John Hendrycks is 'Trick or Treat' campaign head

Children helping children--that's what it's all about.

Local children will be helping children they have never seen and will never know by offering the nickels, dimes and pennies they collect during the annual Trick or Treat for UNICEF campaign.

Considering only the recipients needs -- not his race, religion or politics, UNICEF sends supplies, equipment and training grants to countries that request help for their children.

The West Valley-Campbell area chairman of this year's Trick or Treat Program is Mrs. John Hendrycks.

Persons or groups who would like information concerning the Trick or Treat campaign can contact Mrs. Hendrycks at 244-2061. This year it is hoped there will be a neighborhood supply depot near every school in the Campbell-Moreland area.

The United Nations Children's Fund exists because over one billion children in this world suffer from hunger, disease, poverty and lack of education. According to Mrs. Hendrycks, political differences do not deter UNICEF from responding to the needs of these children.

UNICEF contributions become water pipes and pumps, hi-protein food, medical supplies, blackboards and books, bicycles and boats and schools for teachers as well as pupils.

Money for UNICEF's work comes from voluntary pledges of over 100 countries plus contributions from private citizens and groups. It does not share in the United Nations budget.

DeMarco gets dean position at West Valley

West Valley College trustees filled the post of dean of occupational education with the appointment of Philip E. DeMarco, recently.

The dean's position was left open in June with the elevation of Dr. Warren Sorenson to the post of assistant superintendent, education, effective October 6.

DeMarco, 38, is currently assistant dean of continuing education in the Foothill College District.

His background in occupational education is extensive, including one year as vocational education consultant for the Chancellor's office of the California Community Colleges. He also served as a consultant for junior colleges in the California Department of Education.

His education background includes a B.S. degree in business finance from Colorado State University and a master's from California State University, Los Angeles.

DeMarco is married and the father of three children.

Incentive plans for college salaries welcomed by board

Growth and development incentive plans for members of the faculty and classified staff at West Valley College received a warm reception by trustees recently.

The two proposals, which provide for monetary incentives to further professional growth, will have a second hearing at the board's special October 26 meeting.

Dr. Ian Webb, vice chairman of the Faculty Senate, presented the certificated proposal. It provides for a monetary incentive for those who have attained their maximum salary level, i.e. after 12 years of teaching.

The monetary incentive is not automatic, however. Faculty members must remain at the 12th step for three years, then complete approved projects before receiving an increase in salary.

Gary Hubbard, community services, presented the classified proposal. It also calls for a monetary incentive for classified employees who have reached their maximum salary level to further professional growth. Hubbard told trustees that only two community colleges in the state, Cabrillo and San Jose City, have adopted similar proposals.

Under this plan classified personnel would also have to complete approved projects before a salary increase would be granted.

Approved projects under both plans include course work and accredited institutions, participation in appropriate workshops, travel related to college duties, authorship of articles for professional books or magazines or other approved projects.

Trustee Don Lindstrom and Mrs. Mildred Wharton, chairman, both expressed thanks to both committees for their work and effort in preparing the proposals. A vote on the matter will come Oct. 26.

In other action Thursday evening trustees:

Appointed Philip E. DeMarco as dean of occupational education effective Oct. 6.

Cast their vote for Yancy Williams, trustee of San Jose City College, for one of six vacant seats on the board of education for the California School Boards Association, Delegate Assembly, Region 20.

Approved a course in consumers and their problems.

Approved a job description and salary range for the position of student health services supervisor and adjusted the salary range for the position of medical secretary.

Approved a revised change order on the business education-student personnel-administration building on the Saratoga campus.

Awarded a bid for engineering-technology equipment on a three-year lease purchase basis to six firms.

Approved the following personnel items: Hired Michael Utke, Victor Garza, Marcial Pelayo and Pete Chavarria to the position of custodian; Stephen Alexander as groundsman—gardener; and Misses Vicki Anderson, Gayle Gonzales and Shirley Ortiz as typist clerks in admissions and records.

Fire chief warns on frauds

Campbell Fire Chief Gene Borden cautions all Campbell businesses and residents to watch for and report any encounters with or knowledge of a private enterprise operating under the name "Fire Protection Bureau."

This group has been soliciting business people in the San Jose area to purchase pamphlets containing advertisements scales in size in proportion to the number of pamphlets purchased.

According to Borden, a wide variety of fraudulent misrepresentations have been attributed to this group, including; impersonating a fireman; wearing a uniform and/or badge similar to those worn by a fireman; stating that the pamphlet and its solicitation were a public service sponsored by the local fire department; stating that the venture was underwritten by the Bank of America.

Chief Borden advises all Campbell businessmen and residents to immediately notify the Campbell Fire Department upon any encounter with the "Fire Protection Bureau" or any of its representatives, and to retain any receipts or checks (or photocopies thereof) of any payment which might have been made as a result of such misrepresentations.

The Chief stresses the fact that the bogus "Fire Protection Bureau" is in no way affiliated with any fire department or legitimate agency.

Persons claiming to be fire department representatives for the purposes of any type of solicitation should be immediately reported to the Fire Chief.

District to issue "letter"

Campbell Elementary School District as a means to improve information and public relations services during this current school year has published a "District Newsletter."

This publication will be produced periodically and distributed to parents through their school children.

Parents of the Campbell Elementary district are reminded by district officials that the first issue of the Communicator will be sent home sometime this week and are encouraged to read and react to it.

ENDORSEMENT — Fess Parker, developer of the proposed Frontier Worlds entertainment park in Santa Clara, gives his endorsement for Proposition 1 on the November 7 general election ballot to James P. Hardy, superintendent-president of West Valley College.

Proposition 1, if passed by a simple majority, will provide for $160 million in state matching funds to finance needed construction at community colleges throughout the state.

Parker explained his endorsement by noting "California community colleges are bridging the gap for those who don't have the opportunity to attend a four-year school and for those seeking modern training for vocational careers.
